NOTES TO ALL VENDORS:

1. Booth locations are subject to change depending on market expansion or shrinkage.
2. No live animals may be sold at the market
3. For your protection, we encourage all vendors to familiarize themselves with the Texas Cottage Food Law and to abide by their requirements at www.texascottagefoodlaw.com or call the Colorado County Extension Office at (979) 732-2082 for more information.
4. No charge for booth space. A “pass the hat” is done monthly to defray costs of the market.
5. No smoking.
6. Columbus Country Market is not responsible for product liability, fines, penalties or sales taxes for individual vendors. That is, the Columbus Country Market accepts no liability for any products sold. Any licenses/permits, etc., required to sell your products at fairs, festivals or markets are solely the vendors’ responsibility.
8. Columbus Country Market reserves the right to change rules at any time, at which time vendors will be notified.

Thank you for your interest in Columbus Country Market.

The Market was formed in 2014 by volunteers who wanted to promote a wholesome, family activity in downtown Columbus for the benefit of all – local citizens and visitors alike. We do this in several ways; by organizing a market for various locally produced food items, handcrafts, fresh fruit and vegetable vendors, educational activities and entertainment.

Of course, our emphasis is on quality products, preferably local.

All products offered for sale should meet at least one of the following criteria.

1. Locally grown, raised and/or harvested fresh/frozen vegetables, fruits, grains, nuts, meats, eggs, fish
2. Original, fine crafts produced by the vendor.
3. Locally home/farm canned food products i.e. honey, olive oil, jellies, preserves, wines, sauces, baked goods, tamales, egg rolls and other approved food/drink items.
4. Locally grown plants
5. Products from locally owned businesses.
6. Local non-profit fundraising projects.

If you are uncertain your items meet the above criteria, the Vendor Committee will be happy to review your application with you. Please check with the volunteers at the information booth for a contact.

Please print all information and sign form where indicated.
